

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

VOL. II.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1883.

NO. 147.

THE machine shop farce has about petered out for the present.

A TURTLE weighing 44 pounds, has been killed by a Woodford county man.

For Col. W. A. Cunningham for candidate for Criminal Judge, Saturday.

THE Maysville boys will cross bats with Clinton base ball club at Lexington to-day.

Our readers are unanimously exclaiming that the NEWS is a "rattling good paper."

POST—A gold badge pin with "F. C. B. and P. on it. Return to Jos. Rion and get reward.

THE Short-horn sales were all largely attended and on the whole, fair prices were obtained.

THERE will be a Kentucky lump of coal at the Louisville exposition, which contains ashes.

MADE dollars taken at par on subscriptions at this office, from either new or old subscribers.

LOUIS GALLI, the unruly Italian, is back again. Louis will "mit" fusion yet if he does not look out.

WM. HINTON has two nice cottages fast approaching completion on upper Main and Pleasant streets.

SPRINGS & CHAMBERS have put in a handsome new front and otherwise remodeled their store-room.

S. TEMPLETON was fined $1 and costs in Mayor's Court last week, for running a without license.

BECKHARTS are selling at 20 cents per bushel in Carlisle, 25 at Flemingsburg, 35 at Lexington.

NOT a farm offered for sale by Smith & Co., one of the best in the Bluegrass advertisement in this paper.

ADAIR struck too, with the good of operators the other day—the Bourbon House for a square meal.

9,000 bushels of coal were sold at 9 cents in Lexington last week. For figures it was delivered to consumers.

EDWARDS sold a half interest in stable fixtures yesterday, to Thos. ningham, late of Clintonville, for words "General Grant fell dead on the were telegraphed all over the Union signal for the operators to strike last

WILL has purchased a lot opposite Union House for $1,500, from Jos. neely, and will erect a tombstone manufactory thereon.

LAST week the Cincinnati Southern Co. hauled 130 car loads of Georgia watermelons into Cincinnati, at a cost of one cent per ton per mile.

$300 horse belonging to C. R. Kimbrough cut his ankle on a piece of zinc while roaming the lot, and came near bleeding to death. —[Cynthiana Democrat.

THE Mammoth Cave property has been leased for five years, by Wm. Comstock, of Colorado, who will add many improvements in way of conveniences.

GEN. WM. PRESTON has brought suit against Bath county for the sum of $25,000 for legal services rendered in the case of Amy & Co., of New York, vs. the county.

OVER 15,000 bushels of wheat were delivered at Mulr's last week. That station does a larger business than any county station between Covington and Lexington.

THE question of local option is the all-absorbing topic at Georgetown now. Col. Cheves, Harry Ward and other temperance speakers are putting in their labors there.

NEWELL & Co., machinists, have bought out the tools of the McDonagh Bros. And will erect a business house on Pleasant St., in the rear of the Kentucky Boarding House.

SILAS COBB's horse didn't understand the locomotive on the K. C. road near Richmond, and dragged "SI" by the foot until the stirrup pulled the shoe off and bruised him up badly, says the Herald.

THE military companies of Southern Kentucky are making arrangements to go in at Grayson Springs shortly. Ten companies will be present, under command of Crump, of Bowling Green.

HARLIE HERBERT, Librarian of Macon, Ga., formerly a sergeant of the "Orphan Band," sent the News a Confederate flag 36x15 inches, made in 1861, to unfurl at the home of Morgan's boys to-day.

WADE, of Porter's Station, near Millersburg, has returned his large new threshing machine grain. He pulled it in here with a steam engine Saturday night.

ARMSTRONG now has a colored lawyer—J. Armstead, a Democrat, formerly of West Va. By request of the Committee of Mason, he spoke at court-house Thursday evening.

ANCE agent of John O'Brien's circle here yesterday and arranged the August 10th for an exhibition. This circus which had the big fight in Grand last Spring, and is said to be a big and fine one.

NAMARA presented this office with Irish potatoes of a fine new variety. It only took twenty to make a man of them weighing half a bushel. They were planted April 11th, from of Jesse Turney.

HERALD says that Richmond is now ordering goods Cincinnati one day and having them on their shelves the next day, in consequence of the new extension route. "This knocks Louisville trade in less another railroad is built."

Pleasant Events Coming.

Sharpsburg Fair August 7, four days.

Cynthiana Fair August 21, 22, 23, and 24.

Mt. Sterling Fair August 31, three days.

Lexington Fair (nobody can tell when.)

Hops at the Blue Lick Springs every night.

Deering Camp-Meeting August 2nd to the 11th.

Speaking by Col. T. Z. Morrow on to-morrow.

The Bourbon Fair September 4th, five days.

The machine shops to be erected in this city in 1885!

Drill of the Broom Brigade in this city, early in September.

Barnum's circus at Cincinnati four days, August 27, 28, 29 and 30.

Re-union of Morgan's men at Lexington to-day, to-morrow and the next day.

Democratic Primary election Saturday for the selection of a candidate for Criminal Judge.

High Bridge Camp-Meeting now going on. Sunday School Mass Meeting at Parks' Hill next Saturday.

The Teachers Institute—and the cholera! The subscriber in arrears to pay his subscription (just a little in the advance of Gabriel.)

REV. DEWITT TALMAGE will be paid $300 for preaching two sermons at Parks' Hill during the camp-meeting commencing on Aug. 24. The K. C. railroad will pay half and the stockholders of the association half. Mr. Talmage will no doubt draw largely.

COL. SWOPE fixed up a bond here Saturday, for $22,000 in about twenty minutes, and refused with thanks, a proposition from two other gentlemen to raise it to a half million. The following are his bondsmen: B. F. Harris, J. J. Brown, W. A. Bacon, Wm. Shaw, Allen Bashford, R. W. O'Conner, Jno. Gnadlinger, Jas. McClintock.

SAM BULGER is to be hanged by the neck until dead in the jail yard of Maysville, on September the 4th. He received the death sentence with a smile, and in reply to the foolish question: "Have you anything to say why the death sentence should not be pronounced?" said "no." Judge Cole not being a man given to ignorance and superstition, named Tuesday instead of Friday as the day upon which Bulger shall be hanged. The Judge deserves credit for acting brave and sensible.

A CARD signed by ten colored preachers who visited Dan Timberlake in the Lexington jail, came out denying that the criminal had made a confession, and denounced in the severest terms the person who sold an alleged confession on the streets. The following cloud-scraping effusion was appended to the confession in way of giving it a poetic send-off:

"The trees bowed their heads in shame; the modest violets shook their perfumed heads as though indignant to see innocence thus deflowered, while the great god who dwells in the bright angels on the battlements of heaven, drew a veil of dark clouds over their sparkling faces."

Programme of the Morgan Reunion Association.

FIRST DAY, 24TH.

The members will, on arrival, report at once to the Reception Committee at the camp for enrollment, and the morning will be devoted to the enrollment of members of the various regiments and to the organization and arrangement of the encampment. At 2 p. m. the formal reception will be had at Woodland, opening with prayer by the Chaplain, Gen. R. M. Gano.

Address of welcome on behalf of the City of Lexington and Fayette County by Gen. M. Preston.

Response on behalf of the command by Gen. Basil W. Duke, President of the Association, or some one designated by Gen. Duke.

Music between addresses.

Inaugural address by Gen. B. W. Duke.

At 8 p. m. lecture by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Jones, of Richmond, Va. Subject, "Boys in Gray," after which the distinguished visitors will be introduced.

SECOND DAY, 25TH.

At 9 a. m. there will be a meeting of the Association, at which addresses will be delivered, papers read by distinguished visitors and members of the command, and a poem recited by H. T. Stanton.

The command will march in a body to the graves of Gen. Morgan and other Confederate soldiers, and an address on the life and services of Gen. Morgan by Hon. M. C. Santley, and after which will be the decoration of Confederate graves. The Patterson Light Infantry will act as an escort to the command.

THIRD DAY, 26TH.

At 9 p. m. the Association will hold a meeting at which addresses will be delivered and papers read by members of the command. The camp will be under military discipline. A band of music in constant attendance, and an artillery salute at sunrise and sunset each day. —[Lexington Press.

Not Guilty Of Course!

DAN TIMBERLAKE, colored, who was hanged at Lexington at 12 o'clock last Friday for the crime of having outraged a little colored girl of nine years of age, although proven to have had four living wives and once made an attempt to outrage his own daughter, after having been conclusively proven guilty of the charge which doomed him, died with a lie on his lips. At 11:50 when the noose was tied around his neck, the sheriff asked him if he had anything to say, he straightened himself up and said:

"A good many people are here looking at me, and want to know if I am guilty of the charge against me. I am about to die, and they say a man about to die will tell the truth. I know I will. I am not guilty, while the crime I am charged with. This thing has all been made up against me, and the last words I have to say on earth are 'I am not guilty, not guilty, not guilty.'"

At the conclusion of the speech, the sheriff pulled the throttle valve and then the usual "dull thud" and "mid air suspension" business took place, and the pulse feeling commenced—it would have been awful, you know, for a hanging man not to have his pulse felt and reported every minute. In just eight minutes Daniel was pronounced no more. Then, after hanging half an hour, a coroner's jury was impaneled from the crowd who saw him hanged, to take evidence in the case and inquire into the cause of Dan's death. After much deliberation and walling back of eyes and looking wise to conform with the red-tape requirements to the very letter, a verdict was brought in stating that Daniel died of a rope.

After the coroner's jury finished its important labors, the body was taken to the old Presbyterian graveyard by Squire Muir and a colored driver alone, and consigned to its last resting place very little mourned and almost absolutely unscathed.

A Charge Against a Kentucky Preacher.

SOME time ago a letter was sent to the Baptist Churches of Millersburg and Falmouth, Ky., which up to this time has been suppressed. It reads as follows:

"TO THE CLERK OF BAPTIST CHURCH AT, &c. Dear Brother:—Your pastor, Rev. J. M. Bent, has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a minister of a Christian. His sin is the same as the sin of Ananias and Sapphira, Acts v. 1-10. The facts can be given to a responsible committee of either or both the Churches, or the writer, if assured a fair hearing, will come and quietly present a statement of the facts to the official boards of the two Churches."

There has been no response except the claim by the brother that such accusation increases his popularity with the churches. This same charge has been sent to the clerks of the associations with which the two Churches stand connected. The charge is preferred by a minister of the Baptist denomination, Rev. J. G. Tunison, of Covington. The facts are on record, ready for the inspection of any or all of the ministry that desire to know the truth.—[Cincinnati Enquirer.

The sin of Ananias and Sapphira was the charge of selling a piece of land for the benefit of the Lord and keeping part of the money and lying about it.

BLUE LICK SPRINGS.

A guest of the Arlington House, Blue Licks, in sending a list of the arrivals, says "Big boom here yesterday and things lively. Sixty arrivals to-day. Below find a partial list of the guests:"

James Lawhead, New Antioch, O.

R. C. Lawhead, " "

J. E. Simpson, Covington.

R. B. Spillman, " "

Jos. Clymer Sherman, Texas.

C. F. Perry, Lafayette, Ala.

E. B. Bishop, Philadelphia, Pa.

G. B. Higgins & wife, Georgetown.

J. Tice Hall, " "

Mrs. Sue Grigsby, " "

Geo. W. Nuckolls, " "

Mrs. J. M. Padrick, New York.

Wm. Bruns, " "

E. M. Carpenter, Atlanta, Ga.

Miss S. Reynolds, Chambersburg, Pa.

Judge T. F. Hargis, Frankfort.

Mrs. T. F. Hargis, " "

Miss Anna South, " "

Misses Ashurst, Paris.

W. W. Mitchell, " "

J. H. Deaver, " "

From Cynthiana—Geo. R. Bridwell, J. W. Kimbrough, Jr., Miss Lydia Vanhook, Miss Maggie Vanhook, Miss Birdie Martin, F. S. Shirook, J. Tom Martin, Geo. Ashbrook, W. W. Boyd, S. R. Boyd, W. O. Hill, J. Keller Vanhook, W. D. Frazier, F. R. Broadwell, Miss Ina Baltzell, Miss Etta Musselman, J. C. Vandera, E. R. Hill, J. C. Keller Vanhook, R. W. Matthews, Thos. Gibson and wife, Mrs. Susan Morris and family, Wm. F. Ed. Layton, A. M. Cosby, F. M. Cosby, Geo. W. Armstrong, J. H. Klocke, Val Eckhart Jr.

It is not expedient for Mr. Ingalls to erect the machine shops here before 1885, we think our citizens had just as well drop the illusion and go to work and quit annoying him; and when he does get ready for business, those who have land for sale ought to sell to him just as reasonable as they can, giving him a clear deed to it so that he can do as he pleases with it. The railroad company should pay for it, and be independent of this or any other corporation. Five or ten thousand population added to Paris would add competition to every branch of mercantile business in the same proportion as we have now; consequently, he who will expect to prosper then would have to be just as energetic as now. After all, the men in the country around will be more benefited than the town folks, in having a larger market for their produce. We are decidedly in favor of the location of the shops here, for the benefit of the county, but we think that the railroad company should pay for their lands and be untampered by city corporations. If this point suits the location of said shops, they will locate them here anyhow. We have lived so far, without them, and it will be a cold day when our subsistence shall have been entirely cut off. Our motto is to never get a friend or an enemy to take a gift, even if the gift has a good sized log chain tied to it.

He Kept Good Liquor, or After Many Days.

CHAPTER I.

DEACON GILL, grocer for the Christian Church of this city, is one of those jovial and forbearing merchants like the grocer for Peck's Bad Boy. Uncle Mose Johnson is one of those old colored coons from the Flat Rock precinct—away out in the "Pocket" where the darkeys play the fiddle and drink whiskey for amusement—particularly during the Christmas holidays. On Christmas Eve last, Uncle Mose dropped into deacon Gill's grocery up town, where all was hurry and bustle preparing for the coming festivities, and was soon lost in admiration and bewilderment at the many good and handsome things held up to view. After waiting for some time to gain the deacon's attention, he picked up a corn meal sieve and pried it.

"Thirty cents," says the deacon.

"I'll take it," says Uncle Mose. "Now how do you sell sugar?"

"Eleven pounds for a dollar."

"Whoop!" says Uncle Mose. "I'll have sugar right place to buy goods. I'll take a dollars worth. Now how do you sell coffee?"

"Six pounds for a dollar," says the jovious and brightly expectant-eyed deacon.

"Give me a dollar's worth. I tell you I have struck de right place. I'm goin' to do all my tradin' here in the future, for everything is so nice, and so cheap!"

As the coffee was tied up and shoved over by the side of the sugar and and sieve, Uncle Mose drew nearer "my God to thee," craned his neck a little over the counter and asked in a low and soft christianlike tone "Look here, boss, is you got any good liquor?"

"Now you're shouting the true christian pass-word," said the deacon.

"Just let me sample it," said Uncle Mose, "for I want to buy some real good liquor."

After turning off a brimming full glass without batting his eye, he smacked his lips and said "I tell you boss dat good liquor—I'll take four gallons of it. I'm goin' right straight down town to get my jugs to put it in. (Assuming the shape of a partly closed jack-knife, propping his hands on each hip and craning his neck forward slightly.) Now take a good look at me boss, so you'll know me when I come back!"

SIX months and twenty days have elapsed, and as deacon Gill drew the packages from their long resting places under the counter and dumped the sugar and coffee into the barrels and swung the sifter on a rail, recovering from a deep agonizing frown, he slapped his hand on the counter and exclaimed "Golly I have it—It's all plain now. The old scoundrel just wanted to beat me out of a drink!"

CHAPTER II.

Six months and twenty days have elapsed, and as deacon Gill drew the packages from their long resting places under the counter and dumped the sugar and coffee into the barrels and swung the sifter on a rail, recovering from a deep agonizing frown, he slapped his hand on the counter and exclaimed "Golly I have it—It's all plain now. The old scoundrel just wanted to beat me out of a drink!"

SCINTILLATIONS.

—Col. A. M. Swope was in town Saturday, on business.

—Mrs. Charlie Leer, of Millersburg, is the guest of Arch Stout and family.

—Master Louis Peter Howell, Jr., of this city, has been very ill with cholera infantum for several days.

—A debating society of Bowling Green is discussing the question of "which is sweeter, woman or sleep."

—A party of seventeen ladies and gentlemen from Richmond are now on an excursion to Old Point Comfort.

—Dr. Buck has arrived home from Michigan, where he visited his wife and sick babe. His babe is much improved.

—Misses Eva and Lelia Taylor, of Midway, have gone to Colorado, to visit their brothers, who are in the mining business.

—Mrs. W. W. Hinton, of Kansas City, is in on a visit to James Hinton and wife, her father-in-law and mother-in-law.

—Henry Butler, of this city, is now running as baggage master and express messenger on the extension from here to Stanford.

—Lucy Elliot, said by her friends to be 115 years of age died in Fleming county, last week. She played with George Washington, of course.

—Attorneys Thos. Owens and Hanson Kennedy, of Carlisle, Col. Tompkins, of Cincinnati, and Mr. Houston, of Illinois, paid us a call Saturday.

Grace was in her foot step—A cyclone was in her eye; She picked up the boot-lack—Great heavens, but the cat did fly!

—Miss Georgia Moody, of Scott county, has patched up her lacerated heart with a salve of $2,500 instead of $10,000 sued for against John Moore, in that celebrated breach of promise case.

—Col. A. M. Swope's father is a widower and wants to marry. One day last week he got so mused on a girl on the K. C. Extension that he set his valise down at the depot and boarded the train without it.

Call at J. J. Shaw & Co.'s and see the Lightning self-sealing glass fruit jar—the best in America. 175781

ONE of the funny sights of last week, was John T. Hinton trying to play sleep on Conductor Throckmorton, while himself and Judge Turney were going down to Covington to beg President Ingalls to accept of a $10,000 gift from our dear people. But the faithful conductor awakened the sleeper to the tune of $2.25, or $4.50 for the round trip. The two commissioners returned home greatly grieved that they couldn't get rid of their $10,000 gift.

WE understand from good authority, that Mrs. C. V. Higgins, Sr., whose death took place Friday night, devised that her residence shall be sold and her notes and bank stocks be realized into cash, and that the estate of $80,000 shall be divided between about twenty heirs, of whom Dr. Ed Ray, her immediate nephew, will get a very liberal sum.

Matt. Stone, Miss Stone, Miss Sallie Neal, Mrs. Tno. Ray and son Gus will also be numbered among the twenty. The will provides that Col. A. M. Swope shall be the executor.

The Trader, Turfman, Farmer and Sportsman.

McIntyre & Swiney sold Ballard yesterday, to W. H. Saddler, of New York, for $2,500.

Leonatus, the great Kentucky racer, will run for Omnibus Stakes of $10,000 at Monmouth Park in August.

FOR SALE—Two unregistered thoroughbred Alderney cows: will be fresh next month. Call on or address W. H. H. Johnson, Millersburg Ky.

Mr. J. T. Davis, of Smileytown, Ky., will sell at public sale at the Bourbon Fair grounds, Tuesday August 8th, 23 registered and 35 unregistered Jersey cattle. See his advertisement in this paper.

FOR SALE—The handsome two-year-old stallion in the land; by Caliban, out of the dam of Steinway, with a record of 2:29 1/4 for three years old. He is a bay without blemish. Address W. S. BUCKNER, Cane Ridge, Ky.

At the four Short-horn cattle sales here last week, 248 head averaged a fraction over $240, and aggregated $61,681. Geo. M. Bedford sold 50 averaging $162, aggregating $8,100; A. Renick, 60 averaging $144, aggregating $8,640; B. F. Bedford 60 averaging $223, aggregating $13,380; and Logan & Ingels, 60 averaging $158, aggregating $9,480.

Col. R. E. Edmondson was auctioneer for the sale of the herd of Logan & Ingels' Short-horn cattle near Hartsburg Saturday. It is now given up that the Colonel is by large odds the best auctioneer in Kentucky or any other State, in selling Short-horns or anything else. He is certainly a daisy talker, and does not bore the public with his opinion, while the catalogues speak for the animals. Considering the stock offered, men who were good judges and had bought stock at the preceding sales, said that the prices were better than any of the week. $125 per head. They were sold quickly, and brought every dollar they were worth.

James Walker, Louisville, Ky., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with wonderful success as a general tonic and appetizer."

On yesterday in Covington, aged six years, of pneumonia, Jimmie Owen, son of W. H. and Mollie McClure Owen, and nephew of James R. Dorsey McClure, of this city.

Thornton Mooreland died of typhoid malarial fever near Joseph's Chapel, Nicholas county, at the age of 67 years. He had been a prominent member of the Methodist Church for 50 years.

Mrs. Judith Higgins, widow of C. V. Higgins, Sr., died Friday night last in this city, at the ripe age of 70 years. She left an estate valued at $60,000. Her funeral took place at the residence Sunday, and her remains were followed to the cemetery by a large cortege of friends. Services by Eld. J. A. Williams of Harrodsburg.

W. H. H. JOHNSON, Prop'r. W. B. CONWAY, Clerk.

JOHNSON HOUSE, MILLERSBURG, KY.

One square from the depot. Good Livery Stable Attached. The kindest attention given and guests made comfortable.

Good Sample Rooms. A table filled with all the delicacies of the season.

RATES REASONABLE.

WM. KENNEY, M. D., PRACTITIONER OF

MEDICINE & SURGERY,

May be found during the day, when not professionally engaged, at Brooks & Lyman's Drug Store, at night, at the residence of Prof. E. Amende, on High st.

JAMES McARDLE, MERCHANT TAILOR,

Grand Opera Build'g, CINCINNATI, O.

CHRIS. GROSCHE, BAKER & CONFECTIONER.

DEALER IN

Fruits, Cakes, Fancy Goods, Cigars and Tobacco, &c.

FRESH BREAD EVERY DAY.

One door above the Thurston House.

R. M. KENNEY, SURVEYOR,

PARIS, KY.

Will attend to all calls in his line, in Bourbon and surrounding counties, with promptness. Charges Reasonable.

DR. VANSANT.

BROADWAY, PARIS KY.

Office Hours: 8 to 9 A. M. 1 to 4 P. M. 7 to 8 P. M.

S. B. EWALT, LIVERY SALE AND COMMISSION STABLE,

High Street, Paris Kentucky.

Will break colts to best advantage. Horses bought and sold on a small margin, also boarded on as good terms as any other stables in Paris.

'KIMMY' KIMBROUGH, JAS. S. HUFF.

KIMBROUGH HOUSE, CARLISLE, KY.

KIMBROUGH & HUFF, PROP'S.

Large and Commodious Sample Rooms on first floor for commercial men. Baggage transferred to and from the depot free of charge.

GEO. W. DAVIS, DEALER IN

FURNITURE,

Window Shades, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mattresses, &c.,

Special Attention Given to Undertaking and Repairing.

Main Street, Paris, Ky.

PHARES T. THROOP, Att'y-At-Law,

CARLISLE, KY.

Office over B. F. Adair's grocery.